Brief History and Background

Guru Nanak College, affiliated to Punjabi University, Patiala (listed in 2(f) & 12(b) sections of UGC Act 1956) is situated in outskirts of Budhlada city - a small town of district Mansa in Punjab. To tribute the 500th birth anniversary of "Sri Guru Nanak Dev Ji", it was started in 1971 by some eminent personalities of the region keeping in mind the noble cause to make affordable education accessible to all the people of this backward, rural and remote area. In the beginning, it was functioning under the local management but later on the college was handed over to SGPC (Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee, Sri Amritsar Sahib) an apex and philanthropic body of the Sikhs committed to serve the humanity, on 09 November 1994 due to meager financial resources and some other executive problems. The vision of the institute is "Enlightening Human Minds and Social Empowerment through Education". The mission of the college is transforming the youth into productive asset of society through value-based quality education focusing on their all-round development to enable them to contribute in the progress of the society to their utmost potential.

Institute Objectives

- To achieve excellence in teaching and learning.
- To inculcate social, moral and spiritual values among the students.
- To sensitize the students towards social issues and make them responsible citizens.
- To make the students skilled and productive.
- To groom the students intellectually with scientific temper providing congenial ambience.
- To enable the youth to become tomorrow's leaders of change.
- To provide educational opportunities to the under-privileged sections of the society.
- To ensure all round development of the students through extra-curricular activities.
