Message from Principal

With the COVID-19 pandemic having reached a one-year milestone, I cannot overstate how heartened I am by the unwavering support and kindness that our SGPC has shown for one another during these extraordinary times. The resilience of our entire community has been palpable, and the tenacity and determination to keep learning and moving forward displayed by our students is remarkable. As a college, we'd found new ways to teach, to connect, to advise students, to hold events, and to mobilize knowledge and passions for the good of the College. We'll surely continue to utilize the best ICT tools put into action along the way to the benefit of our students, even in the post-vaccine world we'll soon be entering.

Message from IQAC Coordinator

IQAC is extremely proud of undeniable passion which had taken many different forms. We had recognized that the struggles and changes people have experienced over the past year are not equal. Teachers have used palpable methods from information communication technology to entrepreneurship and creating groups dedicated to significant causes that change the lives of learners. I truly epitomize Guru Nanak College Budhlada's values through all of its activities and convey the message that our approach had been to promote environmental sustainability is multifaceted as integral to the path towards preserving a livable climate.
